Expressions

“Some of the future capabilities of machine tool manufacturers have been exhibited which is good as the evolution of industry is dependent on capability building and there is an effort towards it. Many of the end users of machine tools are in Chennai and Tamil Nadu. It is good for the machine tool manufacturers to exhibit here as more people from companies can visit. You get a larger audience and the chances that you get a hit are more when you have it here.”

“It has been a good show. Many of our customers are from Chennai and the city is a big market for auto components. IMTMA is an extremely good brand and conducting shows such as these in regional markets will help us reach out to the local and regional customers. We think this is an extremely good concept.”

A.V. Srinivasan, CEO, Meiban Engineering Technologies Private Limited

“Regional expos have a specific purpose. It will definitely reach out and give clarity that there are many leading players who become accessible to the small and medium sized companies who may not be able to go to the big shows. I am very confident that the regional show will keep developing and growing strongly.”

Indradev Babu, President, IMTMA

“As a first-time effort in Chennai the expo has come out very well. We had significant number of exhibitors who brought not only manufacturing technology solutions but also the supply chain solutions in the manufacturing technology area. We are quite happy with the beginning.

V. Anbu, Director General & CEO, IMTMA
